

There is an amazing man named Walt
Who is a great guy, almost to a Fault

As a teenager he was quite a Rebel
Made a ruckus and stirred up a lot of Trouble

He matured into a popular guy who could carry a Tune

Some might think that he turned into a rich Tycoon

At some point Walt needed to give back More
That's the reason he became a Doctor

Realizing that he was a single Man

He made his MARK,,, and created a Clan

Walt set out to build the Dream

You can count on him to be on your Team

Some times the city life left Walt Wishing

To Go up to Read and do some Fishing

Oh he's a clever guy, smart as a Whip

And has certainly demonstrated great Leadership

Always moving at a fast Pace

He gets around, even in Space

Walt has strong views on Religion
He actually doesn't give a Smidgeon!

Walt appreciates the world strait from the Heart
Which gives him a good eye for particular Art

In his old age he has taken to Poker
"To the woods, to the woods" he's become quite a Joker

Now on his 80th Birthday let us all Rise

To a man we proudly know as Old and Wise
